The Standard Group becomes AIB Certified with a Superior Rating

Louisville, KY - June 8th, 2011 - The Standard Group's (TSG) manufacturing facility in Louisville, Kentucky, has become AIB Certified with a Superior rating for the Consolidated Standards for Inspection: Food-Contact Packaging Facilities. This achievement, in conjunction with Standard's ISO 9001:2008 certification, serves to ensure the company's willingness and ability to continue to serve the domestic processed food market. "The request for AIB certification came from one of our customers," comments TSG's President & CEO, Louis Cortes, "...however we have all ready witnessed how pursuing the AIB standard has improved our overall effectiveness."

The Standard Group is an ISO 9001:2008 and MBE certified, fourth-generation family owned company with the corporate headquarters in Jackson Heights, NY and manufacturing in Louisville, KY. They are an independent manufacturer of printed paperboard packaging, serving a wide range of industries, including food (frozen and dry), household goods, personal products, and pharmaceutical.
